We're not exclusive... ...we're exceptional.

If you're looking for someplace extraordinary, you've found it at Northwinds Lodge at Indian Lake. At first glance you might wonder what sets us apart, but when you take a closer look you'll see what makes us truly unique. Our rustic Lodge sets the tone for what Northwinds is like. It's small enough to easily find your way to our dining room, lounge, gift shoppe and bakery, yet large enough to let you find that quiet, relaxing corner. Our versatile dining room is perfect for cozy dinners or large parties, and our Chef's special features will keep you coming back for more. Entertainment is chosen carefully so that the music we play, whether it's rock-n-roll, country or acoustic guitar, is the music you want to hear. And when it comes to our guest rooms, you'll find more than you expected — like dry bars, comfortable sitting areas and outdoor decks overlooking the golf course or Indian Lake. Yes, we mentioned golf course. Scenic Lakewood, with its views of the surrounding mountains and lake, will tempt you to hold up play. And, with the expansion of the course to 18 holes in the Spring of '94, there'll be nine more reasons to get hooked! If golfing isn't your cup of "tee", rent a pontoon boat and float away on Indian Lake. But if that's too laid back, catch some action at the lakeside Pow Wow Pier. The sand volleyball court is fun for everyone (even if you don't have a killer spike), and our camp fire sing-a-longs will make you feel like a kid again. Blaze a path every season on our acres of cross country ski and mountain bike trails.

Even though we want you to come here and relax, we know sometimes work needs to come with you. So whether it's a banquet for 250 or an employee seminar for ten, Northwinds Lodge can help you combine work and play better than anyone. Our conference facilities are perfect for small meetings and professional outings, and our staff will go out of their way to help you with any of the extras you might need. Besides, where else can you quickly trade in your briefcase for a set of clubs and get to the really important things at hand...like who can sink the farthest putt? Perhaps what's most notable about Northwinds Lodge is how affordable a visit here really is. In fact, we're what you might call an exceptional value. With prices so reasonable, you'll be able to come back often, so your stay here doesn't have to be a once-in-a-lifetime expense. And with the special packages we offer throughout the year, you'll be able to take advantage of all our seasonal activities. So if you're ready to get away from the atmosphere at the office or the daily routine at home, plan a trip to Northwinds Lodge. It won't take you long to discover how exceptional we really are.
