WATER STORAGE FACILITIES INCREASED

The water pressure problem experienced earlier in the summer by peninsula residents has been alleviated following mutual efforts taken by new owners of Indian Lake Development Company and Indian Lake Borough Council.

The situation was resolved by developing a new water source and installing additional water storage facilities, thereby increasing both the supply and pressure. Quick action taken by Neilan Engineers at the joint request of Indian Lake officials and Borough Council brought about an early completion of the needed utility improvement.

SPACE AVAILABLE FOR WINTER BOAT STORAGE

Now is the time to consider plans for winter boat storage. Lew Maust, marina manager, reminds Indian Lake boat owners desiring storage space at marina facilities to let him know your needs. He's now making his list of those who indicate they want storage space--reservations for boat storage will be on a first-come, first-serve basis. See Lew at the marina soon if you want to be on the list for storage for the coming winter.

EXCITING NEW MENUS

LODGE GETS NEW CHEF

Carl Krebs, whose credentials include a food business and food preparation background that began at the age of 14, is the new chef at Indian Lake Lodge.

He is a native of Pittsburgh and formerly was Chef and assistant Chef, respectively, of the Ligonier Holiday Inn and Seven Springs. Chef Krebs grew up in the food business before the days of instant and portion control foods, so he strives to maintain a standard of "old line" chefs -- that is to say his experience in fresh meat cutting, use of fresh vegetables and fish will be utilized in food preparation at Indian Lake Lodge.

'72 SNOWMOBILES NOW ON DISPLAY

It's preview time for the new line of snowmobiles to be offered for sale by Indian Lake for the coming season. New 1972 models of Polaris snowmobiles are on display now at Indian Lake and Stoughton Lake marinas. See Lew or Regina Maust at the Indian Lake marina or Vinny Sheftic at the Stoughton Lake marina to see and price the new Polaris snowmobiles.

Indian Lake has been appointed as the exclusive dealer for Polaris in this area. You will be viewing on television and reading in national publications a great deal about the Polaris line for 1972-- see these models for yourself right here at Indian Lake.

Carl Krebs, Lodge Chef

Evidence of this is demonstrated by the selections from new luncheon and dinner menus offered in the Lodge. Features on the new menu include hand-cut steaks from choice, aged beef. All meats are fresh (not frozen) and have been personally selected by Chef Krebs.

Included among the Chef's plans are a number of innovative experiences in fine dining. Each Tuesday evening there will be "dining for the gourmet"; Wednesdays the feature will be "Italian Village Night"; Fridays offering will be a "Surf and Turf buffet". Saturday night will be the Lodge dinner-dance and on Sundays, from 3 - 8 P.M., will be the family buffet dinner. Chef Krebs points out that the selection of foods on the buffet will vary from Sunday to Sunday with a delightful selection of meats, salads and pastries.

Chef Carl seems right at home in his new location. Having formerly been associated with another mountain resort he says he is happy to return to the resort atmosphere and likes it very much at Indian Lake. The Chef and his family reside in Somerset. He and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Kimberly and Michele.

WATER SKI SHOW SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

The Indian Lake Water Ski Club is in charge of arrangements and also produces the ski show. Randy Kolesar and Nike Cotchen are coordinating the committee assignments. Many Indian Lake water skiers have rehearsed each Saturday for the past several weeks preparing for the popular attraction.

Some of the events scheduled for the show include trick ski acts, clown acts, jumpers, barefoot skiers, 5-man pyramid and many, many more. It is expected that nearly thirty of Indian Lake's finest water ski enthusiasts will participate in the show.

The Ski Club requests the cooperation of Indian Lake boaters to stay clear of the performing area during the hours of the ski show. The area so designated would be between the marina and the Lodge.

An annual event eagerly awaited by the entire Indian Lake community -- the water ski show -- is scheduled to take place Sunday, September 5 at 2 P.M.

The big show will take place near the base of the ski slopes adjacent to the Lodge. Best viewing will be from the slopes or on the opposite shore on the peninsula.

SWIM MEET SPLASHING SUCCESS

More than forty swimmers in three age classifications competed in sixteen events in the mid-August swim meet held at the Lodge pool. The featured events included underwater swim, breast stroke, free style, back stroke and comedy dives.

High point winner was Jocelyn Weakland who won three events in the eight-years and under class. She won the underwater swim, freestyle and backstroke events. Her sister, Kim, won two first-place ribbons in the 9 - 12 age group events. Barbara Johnson won first place awards, also, in the 9 - 12 age group events. Chris Couch won in both freestyle and backstroke competition for the 13 - 18 age group.

The swim meet was supervised by Manager George Zolla and assisted by lifeguards Sheryl and Barbara Stutzman.

Open Dates Available For Group Meetings, Dinners

The Lodge and adjacent hotel facilities still have several open dates for acceptance of bookings of group meetings, dinners and seminars for the fall season. Indian Lake residents and boosters are encouraged to tell friends and business associates about the public facilities at Indian Lake and to invite them to inquire about the use of the Lodge for such meetings and outings.

Arrangements will be handled by Manager Jim Reed or Assistant Manager Myrtle Collingwood in conjunction with Chef Carl Krebs. Your associates will fondly remember the delightful experience of meeting at Indian Lake and using the facilities.

Fall is a beautiful season at Indian Lake. Visitors to the area always are thrilled with the spectacle of nature and the changing colors of the mountain sides.

Gun Club Adds New Skeet Range, More Merchandise

Onenew skeet range has been completed in time for the heavy shooting season ahead.

Indian Lake Gun Club now has three skeet ranges available to shooters as well as the two trap ranges. In an effort to complete the range construction early, gun club managers Dave and Don Stotler and game farm manager Paul Fleegle have worked extra long days to finish the job.

Merchandise is arriving at the Gun Club almost daily for sale to gun enthusiasts preparing for the fall season. A complete line of guns, apparel, ammunition and components is now available.

SCOTCH FOURSOME

In the scotch foursome tournament held August 14, young John Vanyo and Gloria McLaughlin edged out Dan Swank and Nancy Guarino for first place. Ralph Heinaur and Joan Thoma finished third.

The next scotch foursome event is scheduled for the Labor Day weekend. More details are available at the pro shop.

LODGE ACTIVITY UP

Activities surrounding the Lodge have experienced quite an increase in use this summer season, thanks to added facilities and improvements to others. With the opening of the children's playground adjacent to the Lodge and the game room on the lower level, in addition to the usual activities on the golf course and at the pool, many Indian Lake residents and visitors have centered their recreation around the Lodge.

The dining facilities and lounge also have experienced increased use this summer. The Sunday buffet is becoming increasingly popular as is the dining room on Friday nights. Friday night is Country and Western night; Don D and the Rhythm Aires orchestra have been warmly received by their weekly audiences.

Each Saturday night entertainment is provided by the Melody Men, the popular group which has performed at the Lodge for nearly six years. The Melody Men continue to please audiences with their delightful music for dining and dancing.

Real Estate Sales Office Completed, Staff Increased

Indian Lake Realty, a division of Indian Lake Development Company, with offices in the model home at the new Route 30 entrance now is staffed by additional personnel to greet Indian Lake visitors and prospective buyers.

Newly appointed representatives showing homes and homesites, town houses and condominium hotel rooms are assistant vice presidents David Mankamy and David Wood. The offices are open daily.

At the present time the salesmen are showing six model homes now completed at various sites throughout Indian Lake, plus the new town houses nearing completion at the Lodge.

Indian Lake Realty representatives cordially invite property owners to visit their offices and to refer their guests who are interested in Indian Lake properties.

Ready For Showing

New Townhouses Looking Good

Six of twelve town houses scheduled for completion prior to ski season in locations near the Lodge parking lot entrance are ready for public showing. The town houses are offered for sale to buyers interested in personal use, investment purposes, or both.

Each of the 1 1/2 story units now completed has two bedrooms, living room, kitchen and are offered completely furnished. They will accommodate up to eight persons.

Construction progress of the new town house units being erected near the Indian Lake Borough building is shown here. These six 1 1/2 story units are included in the first phase of the total building program; six additional units, each 2 1/2 stories, are now under construction opposite these. The larger units will be adjacent to number one fairway on the Executive Golf Course.

Construction on six additional town house units also is underway. These 2 1/2 story units, each with three bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bath, will accommodate up to ten persons. They, too, will be completely furnished when offered for occupancy.

The Bavarian-style units were designed by Richmond Homes of Richmond, Indiana and erected by the Cambria Construction Company of Johnstown. Sales are handled by Indian Lake Realty, a division of Indian Lake Development Company, with offices on Route 30, two miles west of Reels Corners.

ALICE MEGRAW WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPION

Mrs. Alice Megraw of Pittsburgh captured the Indian Lake Women's golf title with a score of 210. Jeanne Holman was runner up.

In first flight competition, Madeline Naser took top honors with a 223. Toni Swank finished second.

ANNUAL BANQUET

The women held their award dinner at the Lodge Tuesday, August 24. Outgoing chairman, Toni Swank served as hostess. Newly elected officers for 1972 are Alice Megraw, chairman; Jeanne Holman, assistant chairman; Barbara Phenecie, secretary; and Joanne Booth, treasurer.

All the gals enjoyed the golf season and social activities that go with it. They hope to attract even greater participation next year.

NO UNLICENSED VEHICLES

Youngsters on mini-bikes -- and other motor driven, two-wheeled vehicles -- and Indian Lake roads aren't meant for each other, according to Indian Lake borough police. Residents of the area are to be informed that unlicensed vehicles and under-age drivers are not permitted to operate on borough roads. Police have made a number of citations recently for violations and they will continue to give warnings and tickets to wrong-doers.

Game Farm Memberships Open

It's that time of year again to clean up old "Betsy", run the dog, and join the gang at the Indian Lake Shooting Park and Game Farm. It's shooting and hunting made simple, convenient and safe under ideal year-round conditions.

In the 1,200 acre game farm you can hunt and shoot pheasant, chuka and quail from September 1 to March 31. In 2,500 acre regulated hunting preserve located east of Route 160 you'll hunt and shoot deer, turkey, rabbit, grouse, woodcock and squirrel during the regular Pennsylvania seasons.

A limited number of memberships to the shooting park and game farm now are being offered. Regular membership, $150 annually, includes full annual usage of the game farm and shooting park facilities, plus the personal privilege of shooting 20 birds free. (Extra birds being available at $5 each.) Special membership, $50 annually, includes the unlimited usage of all facilities with birds being available at $6 each. Guests will be allowed where space permits at a daily rate of $10 with birds being available at $6 each.

For further information about the game farm or 1972 memberships, contact Dave or Don Stotler or Paul Fleegle at the shooting park or game farm headquarters.
